

Register and protect your domain name (YOURNAME.COM).

The right domain names are an important part of your business identity on the Internet. Owning your brand enables it to be out there and found via Internet searches and also protects it from acquisition by others.

Your domain name is also used for your email addresses.

GML will register and manage domain names for you so you have no fear of forgetting to renew them when required.

Own and protect all the TLDs of your domain name, such as .CO.UK, the new .LONDON and .UK.

DNS-management; change your settings as often as you require for a fixed price PA.

Domain names with relevant keywords in them significantly help with your search engine rankings.
